NAME CHANGES (Continues)

☒ Certificate of Occupancy Name change (CO has been issued)

Name change requests associated with existing certificates of occupancy shall be submitted and processed through the Occupancy Inspections group.

Note: To qualify for a name change or duplicate certificate of occupancy, the previously authorized use and/or occupancy of the existing facility shall include no change in use or occupancy classification, no increase in building or lease space area (square footage), no floor plan change resulting in an increase in occupant load, and no unpermitted construction to the building or lease space.

1. Complete the appropriate form:
 - CE-1045A for Commercial Occupancy Compliance Inspection, or
 - CE-1045B for Residential Facilities/Live Work Occupancy Compliance Inspection. It can include Assisted Living facilities, or any other properties located in a residential area.
2. Email the applicable completed form to Occupancy.Inspections@houstontx.gov. If there is no change in use or change in square footage, the Occupancy Inspections group will create a project number and email the sales order with instructions on how to make the payment.

FEES

There is a fee of $122.22 ($90.06 plus a $32.16 administrative fee) for these requests. For a name change request on an existing Certificate of Occupancy, there is also a Revalidation Inspection fee of $90.06.

Note: Where a name change is requested for multiple projects associated with a master project and sub-project attachments, a name change fee is administered on each project number that requires changes, and the transaction shall include one administrative fee. Where a name change is requested on separate individual projects a name change fee and administrative fee is administered for each separate transaction. A name change request associated with a permit application includes a name change fee and administrative fee for each transaction, including change requests for applications where a permit has not yet been issued.
