5. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

(Initials)	I am trained and certified to perform leakage testing for residential energy efficiency. I attest that I am not affiliated with a builder or construction company and that I perform diagnostic testing (blower door, duct blaster) as an independent third-party agent . I understand that the City of Houston will confirm my status as a Rater through my provider and the International Code Council (ICC)
(Initials)	I certify that as a Third-Party Rater, I am in NO way affiliated with the building design or construction of any project.
(Initials)	I acknowledge that the City of Houston requires only leakage testing for new residences. I understand that there is no requirement to rate the entire structure but only to perform the duct blaster and/or blower door tests as applicable for the energy code compliance method used. Results shall be provided with volume calculations, targets, and actual performance.
