	[A] 104.11.4 Construction documents. The registered design professional shall submit to the code official two complete sets of signed and sealed construction documents for the alternative engineered design through the alternate method review process.	City of Houston Amendment Analysis: Amendment establishes the COH requirements for plan submittals and alternate method reviews. Justification: Chapter 1 is the legal administration and enforcement chapter governed by state law and separately reviewed by the City Legal Department.
	[A] 105.1 When required. Any owner, or owner's authorized agent who desires to construct, enlarge, alter, repair, move, or demolish a pool or spa or to erect, install, enlarge, alter, repair, remove, convert or replace any system, the installation of which is regulated by this code, or to cause any such work to be performed, shall first make application to the code official and obtain the required permit for the work, and no person shall cause, suffer or permit the same such work to be done unless a separate permit for each building or structure has first been obtained.	City of Houston Amendment Analysis: Amendment establishes that separate permits are required for work. Justification: Chapter 1 is the legal administration and enforcement chapter governed by state law and separately reviewed by the City Legal Department.
	[A] 105.3 Construction documents. Construction documents, engineering calculations, diagrams and other such data shall be submitted in accordance with the authority having jurisdiction two or more sets with each application for a permit. The code official shall require construction documents, computations and specifications to be prepared and designed by a registered design professional where required by state law. Construction documents shall be drawn to scale and shall be of sufficient clarity to indicate the location, nature and extent of the work proposed and show in detail that the work conforms to the provisions of this code, City Code chapter 43, and other applicable State and Local Laws, whichever is more restrictive.	City of Houston Amendment Analysis: Amendment establishes the COH requirements for plan submittals and alternate method reviews, and provides reference to City Code regulations for pools. Justification: Chapter 1 is the legal administration and enforcement chapter governed by state law and separately reviewed by the City Legal Department.
	[A] 105.4 Time limitation of application. An application for which no permit is issued within 180 days following the date of application shall become inactive, and plans and other data submitted for review thereafter shall be returned to the applicant or destroyed by the building official. The building official is authorized to grant one or more extensions of time for additional periods not to exceed 180 days each, for a maximum of two years from the date of the original application, upon written request and justifiable cause demonstrated by the applicant. If an application for permit does not result in a building permit within two years after the date of original application the permit application shall expire. In order to renew action on an application after expiration, the applicant shall submit a new permit application and plans and shall pay a new plan review fee. An application for a permit for any proposed work shall be deemed to have been abandoned 180 days after the date of filing unless such application has been pursued in good faith or a permit has been issued; except that the code official is authorized to grant one or more extensions of time for additional	City of Houston Amendment Analysis: Amendment establishes current COH practice for time limits on permit applications. Justification: Chapter 1 is the legal administration and enforcement chapter governed by state law and separately reviewed by the City Legal Department.
